Lullaby

Lullee, lullay,
I could not love thee more
If thou wast Christ the King.
Now tell me, how did Mary know
That in her womb should sleep and grow
The Lord of everything?

Lullee, lullay,
An angel stood with her
Who said, "That which doth stir
Like summer in thy side
Shall save the world from sin.
Then stable, hall and inn
Shall cherish Christmas-tide."

Lullee, lullay,
And so it was that Day.
And did she love Him more
Because an angel came
To prophesy His name?
Ah no, not so,
She could not love him more,
But loved Him just the same,
Lullee, lullay.

Janet Lewis

Felix namque

Felix namque es, sacra virgo Maria, et omni laude dignissima: quia ex te ortus est sol iustitie Christus dues noster. Alleluia.

[Happy art thou, O sacred virgin Mary, and most worthy of praise: for out of thee hath arisen the sun of righteousness Christ our Lord. Alleluia.]

This version of felix namque is 13th century English plainchant transcribed from the Harmonia Mundi recording by Anonymous 4.

The musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is for the solo voice, featuring a melodic line with lyrics 'lay,' and 'lul - lay.' The second staff is for the chorus, with the lyric 'es'. The third and fourth staves are for piano (pf) and vibraphone (vibes), respectively, providing harmonic accompaniment. A rehearsal mark '107' is placed at the beginning of the piano and vibraphone parts. The piano part uses a grand staff with chords and rhythmic patterns, while the vibraphone part features a similar rhythmic accompaniment.
